THE SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY (SAA)

SAA is an international organization dedicated to the research, interpretation, and protection of the archaeological heritage of the Americas. With more than 7,000 members, the Society represents professional, student, and avocational archaeologists working in a variety of settings, including government agencies, colleges and universities, museums, and the private sector. Since its inception in 1934, the SAA has endeavored to stimulate interest and research in American archaeology; advocate for and aid in the conservation of archaeological resources; encourage public access to and appreciation of archaeology; oppose all looting of archaeological sites and the purchase and sale of looted archaeological materials; and serve as a bond among those interested in the archaeology of the Americas.

BENEFITS!

---

Your membership in SAA includes these valuable benefits and services:

PUBLICATIONS

Members eligible for journals receive digital access to all past and present volumes of SAA's three journals. An optional print subscription to American Antiquity or Latin American Antiquity is also included. Subscriptions to a second print journal may be purchased.

Advances in Archaeological Practice A peer-reviewed quarterly digital journal that seeks to share solutions in the broad practice of archaeology.

American Antiquity A peer-reviewed quarterly journal, offered in print and digital formats, devoted to the methods and theories pertinent to the study of New World archaeology.

Latin American Antiquity A peer-reviewed quarterly journal, offered in print and digital formats, devoted to special reports on archaeology, prehistory, and ethnohistory in Mesoamerica and Central and South America, and other culturally related areas.

The SAA Archaeological Record Issued five times a year in print and digital formats, this magazine encompasses SAA business, news, regular columns, reviews, and articles of interest to professional and avocational archaeologists.

Journal Content Alerts Members can sign up for content e-mail alerts from Cambridge University Press's journals by visiting cambridge.org/SAA-alerts.

The SAA Press The official book-publishing arm of the SAA, its books focus on the discipline and context of archaeological endeavors and help archaeologists in their work, be it in the private sector, government, schools, universities, or museums. Members receive discount pricing.

The SAA Press Archive An online archive of select out-of-print titles from The SAA Press that members can download. To access the Archive, sign in to the Member Center and click "The SAA Press Archives" link.

Government Affairs and International Government Affairs Update Monthly archaeopolitical publication containing updates on events in Washington, DC, and around the world delivered to member e-mail inboxes. Members can join the distribution list by updating their member records in the Member Center or by e-mailing gov\_affairs@saa.org.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Online Seminar Series These free and fee-based professional development opportunities are available to students and archaeologists seeking to enhance their skill sets or knowledge base. Online seminars certified by RPA are eligible for RPA Continuing Professional Education credits. Introduced in 2016 as part of the Online Seminar Series, the Knowledge Series is an exclusive member benefit, consisting of free one-hour, online lectures by prominent archaeologists and individuals from related fields. Lectures are archived on the Member Center for those who cannot join live or wish to listen again.

Annual Meeting SAA's annual meeting attracts thousands of attendees and includes presentations of more than 2,500 scholarly papers and posters, along with workshops, exhibits, and special events.

Principles of Archaeological Ethics These are an interconnected set of values consulted by archaeologists to assist in fulfilling the complex ethical responsibilities of the discipline. Visit www.saa.org to read the nine principles.

Awards Program The annual awards program recognizes the outstanding accomplishments of professional and avocational archaeologists in various areas of achievement.

Service to SAA Every November, SAA issues an open call for members to share their experience and expertise by serving on the more than 50 SAA committees or task forces.

OTHER BENEFITS

NEW! e-Communities This new platform allows interest groups, committees, and task forces to establish closed online communities where their members can have a dialogue with one another, create a resource library, blog, etc.

tDAR Retired and Student members, members from countries with discounted membership rates, and members from Tribal Historic Preservation Offices can receive a voucher to upload 10 files (totaling 100 MB) to The Center for Digital Antiquity. Learn more at www.tdar.org/saa/.

Cambridge University Press Discounts SAA members receive 25% off on books published by Cambridge and a discount of up to 50% on subscriptions to certain archaeological journals published by Cambridge.

JPASS Through JSTOR, members save 50% on a yearly pass for their personal access to a selection from the JSTOR archive collections. The $99 annual fee includes unlimited reading access and 120 article downloads. Members can purchase the discounted pass from JSTOR through a link posted in the Member Center.

Outreach Programs Members may participate directly in government affairs, public education, and public relations programs—giving them a hands-on role in affecting public policy and opinion.

Career Center Job seekers can post their resumes, browse jobs, and create automatic e-mail notifications for new jobs that match their criteria. Employers can post job openings on the Career Center jobs board.

DON'T WAIT. JOIN NOW!

Above all, SAA membership offers you the chance to be a part of the ever-evolving dialogue shaping the future of archaeological endeavor.

OBJECTIVES

OF THE SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY

- To promote and to stimulate interest and research in the archaeology of the American continents.
- To advocate and to aid in the conservation of archaeological resources.
- To encourage public access to and appreciation of the aims, accomplishments, and limitations of archaeological research.
- To serve as a bond among those interested in American archaeology, both professionals and nonprofessionals, and to aid in directing their efforts into more scientific channels.
- To publish and to encourage the publication of archaeological research.

- To foster the formation and welfare of regional and local archaeological societies.
- To discourage commercialism in archaeology and to work for its elimination.
- To promote discussion and education about the ethical practice of archaeology.
